Poughkeepsie, N.Y. (November 2, 2015) – The ABILITIES event will be held on Saturday, November 21, 2015 from 11 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., at Dutchess Community College - Falcon Hall in Poughkeepsie, NY. The event will bring together “Resources to Adapt, Support and Enrich Life” for children and adults with any disability whether it be developmental, intellectual, physical, mental or other. Admission to the expo is free and open to the public.

The ABILITIES Committee is seeking additional vendors with unique services or products that meet the everyday needs and interests of families, individuals or caregivers for those with any disability, in the following categories: entertainment, recreation, sports, travel, adaptive equipment and repairs, furnishings, transportation, living/household, and specialized medical providers such as dentists, hearing aids, etc. The quantity of vendors in each specific category is limited and will be accepted on a first come basis. The ABILITIES event is sponsored by Dutchess Community College, Poughkeepsie Galleria, and Central Hudson.

The event is spearheaded by Abilities First, but is a collaboration with regional not for profits, county and state government, and industry agencies interested in bringing awareness of valuable recreational, adaptive, entertainment and life resources for children and adults who may need special accommodations.
